Field visit - 25.02.2023

The department of Visual Communication took their I, II and III UG Students on a Field visit to Thanjavur Big Temple. The visit covered one days 25th February 2023.

The students visited, Thanjavur Big Temple, the Brahadeewara temple is one of the most important landmarks of the city and was built by Raja Raja Chola and is known as the most intricate example of the south Indian temple architecture.

The students were very much excited upon seeing towering, temple architecture, gopurams, each sculpture with the unique, individual feature. The students enjoyed the view from the top temple including the tower of Thanjavur Big Temple.

The teachers gave them lot of information about the temple architecture and also how it gives us a vital insight into human history and civilization. It was a fun filled learning trip, enjoyed by the students.
