Topic: 'OF Revenge'

Therefore why should I be angry with a man, for loving himself better than me? And if any man should do wrong, merely out of ill-nature, why yet it is but like the thorn or briar which prick and scratch, because they can do no other. The most tolerable sort of revenge, is for those wrongs which there is no law to remedy, but then let a man take heed, the revenge be such as there is no law to punish; else a man's enemy is still before hand, and it is two for one.

How does Lamb describe the Southsee house?

Lamb calls them 'sort of Noah's ark, Old fishes'. He confesses that he finds a great difference between the clerics and accountants of past and the clerics of public offices now. They believed in the principle of dignity of work.

What is South See house?

South see house was located in between the bank of England and the Flower Pot inn. It was made of brick and stone. It was a magnificent building though few people visited it. It is located on the north side of Threadneedle street.
